

SPAN Presents

“Multi-Generational Family Philanthropy and Governance”

February 23, 2010 | 12:00 p.m. | Rainier Club

The Seattle Philanthropic Advisors Network is pleased to announce that its series of programs for 2010 will begin with Sarah Cavanaugh and Richard Woo of The Russell Family Foundation speaking on “Multi-Generational Family Philanthropy and Governance.” Please join us for our first luncheon meeting of the year on Tuesday, February 23, at 12:00 p.m. at the Rainier Club in Seattle.

Sarah Cavanaugh is a Trustee and Past President of The Russell Family Foundation. She is also co-founder and past president of Treeswing, a Seattle-based nonprofit organization, and serves as a board director of Copper Canyon Press, and on the Honorary Council of Philanthropy Northwest. She has a lengthy history of community involvement and philanthropy, including committee and board work on several boards including the Council on Foundations. She holds a master's degree in education from Stanford University.

Richard Woo is Director of Strategic Planning, Programs, and Community Affairs at The Russell Family Foundation. Prior to joining the Foundation in 2000, he spent many years working in nonprofit organizations and business in California. As the former executive director of the Levi Strauss Foundation, Richard has experience in global philanthropy and corporate social responsibility.

SPAN member Carol Lewis will facilitate the discussion with Sarah and Richard. Carol is CEO of Philanthropy Northwest, a membership association of grantmakers providing learning opportunities to its members throughout the Northwest.

Plan now to join us for this exceptional opportunity to hear these Russell Family Foundation directors share their philanthropic philosophy and to learn from the insight of their many philanthropic successes.

Registration is now open for this February 23rd event at the Rainier Club, 820 4th Avenue, Seattle. Admission is free for 2010 SPAN members or $65 for non-members. Seating is limited, so don't delay!

Register today at www.spanseattle.org!